

Symphony of the Americas

SUMMERFEST 2014

sponsored by American Airlines

JAMES BROOKS-BRUZZESE, ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

ROSE MINIACI MAESTRO'S CHAIR

MICHAEL & MADELYN SAVARICK GLOBAL OUTREACH

Mission Chamber Orchestra of Rome

Marilyn Maingart, Flute Soloist

Lorenzo Turchi-Floris, Composer-in-Residence & Piano Soloist

James Brooks-Bruzzese, Artistic Director & Conductor

May 20–June 10	Italy Performances
July 10–20	South Florida Performances
July 20–28	Panama Performance Residency
July 29–Aug 14	South Florida Performances
August 15	Panama Canal Centennial Celebration, Gainesville, Florida

The Mission Chamber Orchestra of Rome, joined by selected musicians of the Symphony of the Americas in a cultural exchange format, will present Summerfest performances under Maestro James Brooks-Bruzzese's baton in Italy, Florida and the Americas from May – August 2014. Mission Chamber Orchestra musicians, graduates and faculty of noted European conservatories, perform often at the Vatican, and will offer music of Vivaldi, Mendelssohn, Saint-Saëns, Parry, music of American composers, and a commissioned work by its internationally acclaimed Artistic Director, Lorenzo Turchi-Floris.

For more information on all concerts:
www.symphonyoftheamericas.org • 954-335-7002

