FOR SOUTH FLORIDA'S LONGEST RUNNING SUMMER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Fort Lauderdale's own Symphony of the Americas will present its 25th Anniversary summer music festival, Summerfest, for one month of performances throughout Florida and the Americas from July 9–August 10. Activities include concerts, master classes, and educational outreach, taking the masterful sounds of this great ensemble to audiences in corners of the world who have never before experienced the exhilaration of live orchestral performance.

This festival will highlight the “Best of the Best.” The Summerfest Chamber Orchestra will feature musicians and soloists who have participated in this Festival over the past 25 years, including orchestras such as the Arpeggione Chamber Orchestra of Austria, the Mission Chamber Orchestra of Rome, Hungarian Virtuosi, Italy's I Musici and more, representing more than 10 different countries — performing several styles of classical and popular music for strings, all joined in cultural exchange by principal musicians of our own Symphony of the Americas.

The Symphony of the Americas is a Broward County designated Major Cultural Institution and Broward Center for the Performing Arts is its performance home.

Under the baton of Symphony Artistic Director, Maestro James Brooks-Bruzzese, orchestral concerts feature the music of Vivaldi, Mozart, Bloch, Fuchs, Piazzolla tangos, a commissioned piece by Italian composer Lorenzo Turchi-Floris, a special arrangement of Latin favorites by Latin Grammy-Award-winning composer Eduardo Magallanes of Mexico, and more. Other soloists will include Summerfest's Concertmaster Orlando Forte of Cuba; violinist Svetlana Forte; Symphony of the Americas principal flutist, Marilyn Maingart and Georgian violinist Sandro Tigishvili.
